Synopsis

It's the start of fifth grade for seven kids at Snow Hill School. There's Jessica, the new girl, smart and perceptive, who's having a hard time fitting in; Alexia, a bully, your friend one second, your enemy the next; Peter, class prankster and troublemaker; Luke, the brain; Danielle, who never stands up for herself; shy Anna, whose home situation makes her an outcast; and Jeffrey, who hates school.

Only Mr. Terupt, their new teacher, seems to know how to deal with them all. He makes the classroom a fun place, even if he doesn't let them get away with much . . . until the snowy winter day when an accident changes everything – and everyone. [Summary courtesy of the publisher]

“The characters are authentic and the short chapters are skillfully arranged to keep readers moving headlong toward the satisfying conclusion.” - School Library Journal

After reading this section, come back to this question and state who your favorite character is so far – and explain why you chose this character.

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first section of Because of Mr. Terupt.

Word	Anagram	Clue
terupt		Usually the last club used in a round of golf.
rules		Used by fishermen.
secret		Builds.
smile		Fruits.
time		A thing.
words		An ancient weapon.
hear		A rodent-like mammal of the genus Lepus .

B. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates A Teacher.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of a humorous poem about a teacher, Miss Krabappel, written by B. Simpson.

*My teacher is stupendous,
She's fun and she's for real;
She even makes math fun to do,
Long division's no big deal!*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - C - B. Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first section of our novel (like teachers or learning).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from the first section: during these tough times.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

A science project.
A fun recess.
Your choice.

D. Cliffhanger

The chapter entitled Alexia contains an example of a literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Alexia's chapter? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

Good to Know ~ A Wrinkle in Time

Jessica mentions a number of different books throughout this novel, including the Science Fiction classic, A Wrinkle in Time. A Wrinkle in Time was written in 1963 by Madeleine L'Engle. The novel is about a young girl whose scientist father goes missing, and the adventures that come about from her search for him. The book won a number of awards and turned out to be the first in a series involving these characters.
