An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Homeless Bird.

rapped		A well-dressed man is said to be ____.
pages		Stares at with an open mouth.
rings		Smiles.

parents		Catches in a snare.
rushes		A seat-director.

Now find three additional words from the first chapter which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

B. A Poem Koly Might Enjoy on Her Wedding Day

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is actually the start of a much longer poem called Your Hand which is found on the poetrysoup.com website.

*I come looking to take your hand
We can no longer stay apart
This day I have forever planned
You have captured all of my heart*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - A - B. Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first chapter of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem on a subject of your choice. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Certain groups, now known as Dalits, were excluded from the system altogether, ostracized as untouchables.

C. Exaggeration

Exaggeration in a literary device defined as a statement that represents something as better or worse than it really is. We find an example of this in Chapter One: I was afraid my ears would stretch to the size of an elephant's.

Think of an exaggerated way of describing the following:

A dog's breath
A thunderstorm.
A fast runner.
A turkey flying.

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: Was my marriage to be like the buying of a sack of yams in the marketplace?

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) a parrot's call
