Mr. Stink

David Walliams

Synopsis

Chloe is just about the loneliest girl in the world. But then she meets Mr. Stink, the local tramp. Yes, he smells a bit – but he’s the only person who’s ever been nice to her. So when Mr. Stink needs a place to stay, Chloe decides to hide him in the garden shed!

But Chloe’s about to learn that some secrets have a way of leading to disaster. And speaking of secrets, there just might be more to Mr. Stink than meets the nose ...

Chapters 1 & 2

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of Mr. Stink is Chloe Crumb, a lonely twelve-year-old girl who is bullied by the kids at school and picked on by her mother. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

opportunity	residence	justice	forbidden	suspiciously
embarrassed	obsessed	deliberately	discreetly	infuriatingly

1. Chloe removed the embarrassing grass stain as _____ as possible.
2. The tramp had taken up _____ on the bench across from the museum.
3. Larry looked _____ at the chocolate stains on his little brother’s hands.
4. Henrietta was _____ when her aunt belched at the posh dinner party.
5. I don’t think we can expect _____ from such a corrupt judge.
6. My sister can be so _____ smug, that I find myself really resenting her.
7. Petula was so _____ with sea shells that she forgot all about going home.
8. Kevin was _____ from entering the neighbor’s house.
9. If I am ever granted the _____, I will certainly take advantage of it.
10. He _____ stuck out his foot and tripped Matilda.

Questions

1. What is the setting of Chapter One?

2. Match each name with the proper description:

1	Mr. Stink
2	Chloe
3	Rosamund
4	Mrs. Crumb
5	Elizabeth
6	Annabelle
7	Mr. Crumb

A	A favorite.
B	A bully.
C	Hen-pecked.
D	A Persian feline
E	Loves sausages.
F	The novel's protagonist.
G	Obsessed with all that's posh.

3. Why do you think Chloe was so fascinated with Mr. Stink?

Good to Know

A council estate is a form of social or public housing in the United Kingdom. Council houses were built and operated by local councils to supply uncrowded, well-built homes on secure tenancies at reasonable rents to primarily working-class people.

4. Why do you think Chloe hated Christmas so much?

5. How does Chloe prove that she is a very generous person in Chapter One?

6. What kind gesture did Mr. Stink do for Chloe during their first meeting?

7. In the chart below, come up with three appropriate adjectives (or descriptive phrases) that would describe:
a) the personality of Chloe; b) her appearance.

Personality	Appearance

8. Mr. Stink asked Chloe to bring him some _____ the next time she came.

9. What is ridiculous about spraying air freshener in the garden?

10. How was Annabelle mean to her older sister? Why did she behaved like this?

11. We notice in Chapter Two that both Chloe and her father tell lies. Why might it be dangerous to get into the habit of telling lies?

Language Activities

A. Choose ten words from these chapters with two or more syllables. Indicate the syllables by drawing a line between each syllable. Example: good / bye.

B. Alliteration

The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device in which the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. An example from Chapter One is “... the stinkiest stinky stinker ...”

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The barking of a seal
The sound of a forest fire
From your imagination

C. Sequence Chart

Choose what you consider to be the six most important events in these chapters. In each of the six boxes below list the six events that you have chosen, describing what happened and telling why you consider this to be an essential part of the story.

D. The Quatrain Poem.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of a poem called I Smell So Bad, written by the renowned poet, Atrocious Halitosis.

*I smell so bad, so very bad,
I smell both night and day.
It's cause my soap's so doggone cheap,
It keeps the girls away.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - C - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first seven chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).
