Suggestions and Expectations

Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Ninth Ward and is comprised of these distinct sections:

1. Before You Read
2. Vocabulary Building
3. Comprehension Questions
4. Language and Extension Activities

A portfolio cover (p.7) as well as a Checklist (p.6) are included so that students may track of their completed work.

Every activity need not be completed by all students.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include coping with disasters (Hurricane Katrina), independence and survival, dealing with life as an outsider, courage and persistence, loyalty, family and friendship.

Ninth Ward

By Jewell Parker Rhodes

Synopsis

Twelve-year-old Lanesha lives in a tight-knit community in New Orleans' Ninth Ward. She doesn't have a fancy house like her uptown family or lots of friends like other kids on her street. But what she does have is Mama Ya-Ya, her fiercely loving caretaker, wise in the ways of the world and able to predict the future. So when Mama Ya-Ya's visions show a powerful hurricane—Katrina—fast approaching, it's up to Lanesha to call upon the hope and strength Mama Ya-Ya has given her to help them survive the storm.

Ninth Ward is a celebration of resilience, love, family, and friendship, and a deeply emotional story of transformation. [Courtesy of The Author's website]

Sunday

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Ninth Ward is Lanesha, who lives in the Ninth Ward of New Orleans. It is very important for the main character of a story to be appealing in some way, and be able to hold the reader's interest. What is one book (or movie) that you have read or seen which features an unforgettable protagonist? What was it that made this character so memorable?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

jambalaya	pralines	tragedy	memorize
cursive	magnolias	dignity	eucalyptus

1. It is difficult to maintain one's _____ during such an embarrassing event.
2. The _____ tree has over 700 species.
3. _____ usually consist of pecans, sugar and cream.
4. Our teacher expects us to practice our _____ writing each morning.
5. I had to _____ the poem The Highwayman when I was in grade seven.
6. _____ usually consists of a mixture of rice, meat and vegetables.
7. Would you consider Romeo and Juliet to be a comedy or a _____?
8. There are plenty of _____ in my grandmother's flower garden.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. According to Mama Ya-Ya, why were most of the people in Lanesha's family scared of her? What other possible reason might they have had for ignoring her?

3. Mama Ya-Ya is ____ years old.

4. Who did Mama Ya-Ya believe Lanesha's father might have been? Why hadn't Lanesha's mother been able to tell them who he was?

5. Do you think you would like to have Lanesha for a friend? Think of one reason why she would make for a fascinating friend, and one reason why she would not.

Good Friend.
Not so much.

6. Why do you think Lanesha was so captivated by the story of Romeo and Juliet?

7. What does star-crossed mean?

8. Who was Mama-Ya-Ya's favourite president?

--

9. Investigate: Ninth Ward takes place in the year of Hurricane Katrina. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, find out the year of this traumatic event. Calculate how old Lanesha would be today.

10. How do you think you would feel about having Mama Ya-Ya as a guardian? Please explain your response.

11. According to Mama Ya-Ya, the color blue means strength, friendliness and happiness. What do you think the meaning of your favorite color might be?

12. Why did Lanesha feel that a butterfly is strong? Do you agree? Why or why not?

Language Activities

A. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is Her head tilts; her body relaxes in the chair like a balloon losing air. In this example, what is her body being compared to?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) being scared

b) the taste of a spicy soup

B. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here is such an example from Chapter One: She wears white angel wings.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

A tragic moment.
The howl of a wolf.
Your choice.

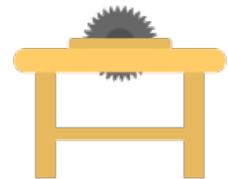

C. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example from Chapter One: Lace curtains hang limp over the two front windows.

Describe how the lace curtains are personified in this sentence.

Create your own example of personification.

D. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Ninth Ward.

Word	Anagram	Clue
poster		Favorite word of some magicians.
dream		Packing heat.
scold		Lumps of earth.
silver		Don't get one of these in your finger.
tragedy		Whirled.
scared		Trees that love growing by the water.
teacher		100 acres.

E. 5 Ws and an H.

Choose an event from this section that you thought was really important and/or exciting. Using facts that you gleaned from reading about this event, fill in the balloons below, summarizing what you learned.

WHO?

WHAT?

WHEN?

WHERE?

WHY?

HOW?

F. An Acrostic Poem

There are many forms of poetry available to the aspiring poet other than the rhyming poem. An ACROSTIC poem is one example. In an acrostic poem the first letters of each line are aligned vertically to form a word. The word often is the subject of the poem. Here is an example written by the acclaimed poet, Atrocious Halitosis:

The Firefly

Freaky-looking
Itches me when I touch
Restless at night
Early or late
Fearless
Little
Yellowfly

The Acrostic Poem

Now create your own Acrostic Poem on a subject featured in this novel. Your poem must have at least four lines (and doesn't need to rhyme).
