Chapters 1-4

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. There are actually two main characters in The Green Ember, a courageous young rabbit, Heather, and her younger brother, Picket. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read. What do you think makes for an interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

invariably	intricate	ingredients	distinguish	diplomacy
tacking	sophisticated	calamitous	insistent	vigilantly

1. She saw it before he did, but he was closer, _____ back and forth.
2. The forest was _____ protected by the army of Jupiter Goodson.
3. They sound awfully _____ and clever out that way.
4. The carnation bow was an _____ weave of one long ribbon.
5. I have told you of the escape from the Coast and the _____ sea passage.
6. The bow she _____ wore over one ear was coming undone.
7. Her mother was _____ that the girls all have a cool drink of water.
8. King Jupiter bent all his energies to _____, to avoiding any wars that could be prevented.
9. This name came to _____ him from his father.
10. She was unaware that she held the _____ for a game that would give them endless hours of fun.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

b. Think of one thing you would enjoy about living in the setting described in the first four chapters, and one thing you would not enjoy.

Enjoy
Not so much

2. Describe briefly the Starseek game that Heather created.

3. Describe how Chapter One ends with a cliffhanger.

4. Heather's mother considered the people of the east to be _____ True or False country bumpkins.

5. Why do you think that Father's biggest regret were those moments when he said to Fear, "You are my master."

6. Give one example as to why King Jupiter was considered such a great monarch.

7. Why do you think many of the songs that Heather's parents sang were sad?

8. Why do you think the author makes their visiting guest so mysterious? Why do you think she stopped by?

9. What did Heather's parents often tell the children to do when they wanted to have a serious discussion with another adult?

10. How were the last words spoken by the mysterious visitor encouraging to Heather?

Language Activities

A. The Rabbit

There are 29 species of long-eared mammals belonging to the family Leporidae, excluding hares. They are ground-dwellers living in environments ranging from deserts to tropical forests and wetlands. Investigate the rabbit further and record three interesting facts about it below.

3.

B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first four chapters of The Green Ember.

Word	Anagram	Clue
stick		Regular short, sharp sounds.
hangs		Can be done with one's teeth.
agreed		Prepared or adjusted.
stone		You might take these in class.
smiled		Taken down the garden path.
maple		Lots and lots.
teased		Not standing or lying down.

C. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: Its limbs stretched out like the brittle arms of a lanky monster.

What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) Two rabbits hopping across a meadow.

b) Diving into a thicket.

c) your choice

D. Chapter Four contains an example of an important literary device called foreshadowing. Foreshadowing is defined as a warning or indication of a future event. Read the last few sentences of Chapter Four and then explain why this might just be an example of foreshadowing.

E. A Quatrain Poem Celebrating Rabbits.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain was written by the famous poet, Atrocious Halitosis. It is called, Percy the Rabbit.

*Percy is my bunny,
I got him from the zoo.
He mopes around all day because He don't know what to do.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A - B - C - B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AABB, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first four chapters of our novel.

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

F. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following example is taken from Chapter 2: The singed fingers of the outmost branches pawed at them.

Describe how the branches are personified in this example.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.

G. Sequence Chart

Choose what you consider to be the six most important events in these chapters. In each of the six boxes below list the six events that you have chosen, describing what happened and telling why you consider this to be an essential part of the story.

H. 5 Ws and an H.

Choose an event from this section that you thought was really important and/or exciting. Using facts that you gleaned from reading about this event, fill in the balloons below, summarizing what you learned.

HOW?

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first four chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
